

Tickets for our concerts are sold on the following conditions:

1. Tickets will be accepted for re-sale as long as they are received by the Tickets Officer 24 hours or more before the concert. Those tickets will only be offered for re-sale once all other tickets in that price band have been sold. Although we will make every effort to re-sell tickets we cannot guarantee that this will happen.
2. No refunds will be made except as above. An administration charge will then be made of £1 per ticket re-sold.
3. Only one concession applies for each ticket. Any concession must be claimed at the time of booking the ticket.
4. The choir cannot be held responsible for any additional costs incurred by the ticket purchaser in relation to event cancellation or the non-appearance of soloist/orchestra.
5. The choir reserves the right to make any alterations to an advertised programme rendered necessary by unavoidable circumstances or causes.
